2020 Session Set to Focus on Budget!

The biennial state budget will be enacted during this even-year session of the Kentucky General Assembly with a new Democrat governor and both the House and Senate with strong Republican majorities. Governor Beshear will present his executive budget next week and then the House and Senate will have their versions introduced, debated, and amended. At the end of the session, typically, the final approved version will be passed by both houses and will receive the governor’s signature. That final budget will set the course for the first two years of the Beshear administration. At least that’s the plan!

Only two new bills were added to our Tracking Report this week as bills are continuing to be introduced. So far, 111 bills and 86 resolutions have been introduced in the Senate. In the House, 323 bills and 57 resolutions have been introduced.

The last day for bill requests is February 21. The last day for new House bills to be introduced is March 2. In the Senate, the last day for new bills is the following day, March 3. The last day of the 2020 session is scheduled to be April 15.

The Kentucky Rural Water Association will be hosting its Legislative Breakfast on Wednesday, March 4, 2020 at the Capital Plaza Hotel in Frankfort from 7:00 am until 9:00 am. The Legislative Breakfast provides a great opportunity for utility managers and board members to meet with their representatives and senators during the session to gain support for projects and discuss possible legislation. To register online go to www.krwa.org or call KRWA at 270-843-2291 by February 28.

The state maintains a comprehensive Legislative website: http://www.lrc.ky.gov. From this site, you can view all bills and resolutions, contact legislators by email and check on legislative committee schedules and calendars.

The Kentucky General Assembly also maintains several toll-free phone numbers for citizens to offer feedback or opinions. The Legislative Message Line is (800) 372-7181. Citizens with hearing impairments can use the TTY Message Line at (800) 896-0305.

This issue of e-Liaison contains summary information for bills that we are tracking with details on the most recent activity for each bill. We will continue to highlight timely legislative news that is important to our members in each weekly issue. If you would like to suggest that we add a bill to the e-Liaison for tracking purposes, please contact KRWA.
